

This Is an Important, Court-Approved Notice About a Class Action Settlement

You are receiving this notice because you are a current or former owner/lessee of a 2.0-liter TDI Volkswagen or Audi vehicle. You may be eligible to receive an additional payment from a settlement with Bosch, another defendant in the same lawsuit (“Bosch Settlement”). Your payment could be up to $350 in addition to what you may be eligible to receive from the 2.0-liter Settlement with Volkswagen/Audi (“2.0-liter Settlement”).

What Are My Rights? What Do I Need To Do?

- If you already filed, or file in the future, a claim in the 2.0-liter Settlement and your claim is approved, you will automatically receive a payment through the Bosch Settlement. Go to www.VWCourtSettlement.com to file a claim online any time before September 1, 2018.
- If you have excluded yourself from the 2.0-liter Settlement, you can still file a claim in the Bosch Settlement until August 15, 2017.
- If you are an Eligible Seller and missed the Identification Deadline in the 2.0-liter Settlement, you have until May 1, 2017 to file a claim in the Bosch Settlement.
- If you do not file a claim in the 2.0-liter settlement, you can still file a claim in the Bosch Settlement until December 31, 2019.
- You can object to or exclude yourself from the Bosch Settlement by April 14, 2017. If you do not exclude yourself from the Bosch Settlement, you will not be able to sue Bosch separately for the claims this Settlement resolves.
- Any exclusion request or objection you submitted for the 2.0-liter Settlement has no effect in the Bosch Settlement, except that you will have to submit a claim form in the Bosch Settlement to receive benefits.
- The Court will hold a hearing on May 11, 2017 to consider whether to grant final approval to the Bosch Settlement.
- Attorneys representing the class will request Court approval of attorneys’ fees and costs. Those fees and costs will be paid from the settlement fund.
- Visit www.BoschVWSettlement.com for more details on the Bosch Settlement and your rights and options.

This Is an Important, Court-Approved Notice About a Class Action Settlement

You are receiving this notice because you are a current or former owner/lessee of a 3.0-liter TDI Volkswagen, Audi or Porsche vehicle. You also recently received notice of a separate settlement concerning the emissions system on your 3.0-liter vehicle. You are eligible for an additional payment from a settlement with Bosch, another defendant in the same lawsuit ("Bosch Settlement"). Your payment could be up to $1,500 in addition to what you may be eligible to receive from the 3.0-liter Settlement with Volkswagen/Audi/Porsche ("3.0-liter Settlement").

What Are My Rights? What Do I Need To Do?

- If you file a claim in the 3.0-liter Settlement and your claim is approved, you will automatically receive a payment through the Bosch Settlement. Go to www.VWCourtSettlement.com to file a 3.0-liter claim online any time before December 31, 2019, or register as an Eligible Former Owner by May 1, 2017.
- If you exclude yourself in the 3.0-liter Settlement, you will have until August 15, 2017 to file a claim in the Bosch Settlement. There is one exception: To participate in the Bosch Settlement, Eligible Former Owners who exclude themselves from, or do not file a claim in, the 3.0-liter Settlement must file a claim in the Bosch Settlement by May 1, 2017.
- You can object to or exclude yourself from the Bosch Settlement by April 14, 2017. If you do not exclude yourself from the Bosch Settlement, you will not be able to sue Bosch separately for the claims this Settlement resolves.
- Any exclusion request or objection you may submit in the 3.0-liter Settlement has no effect in the Bosch Settlement, except that you will have to submit a claim in the Bosch Settlement to receive benefits.
- The Court will hold a hearing on May 11, 2017 to consider whether to grant final approval to the Bosch Settlement.
- Attorneys representing the class will request Court approval of attorneys' fees and costs. Those fees and costs will be paid from the settlement fund.
- Visit www.BoschVWSettlement.com for more details on the Bosch Settlement and your rights and options.
